

There is an extreme amount of violence on television as well as an extreme amount of sexually explicit programing and foul language. We don't need to have out children exposed to more of this than they already are in real life. They need to get back to having morals in this country. Thanks.